DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Breen (6,615,188).

Breen discloses a method and corresponding system for aggregating orders comprising managing commodities securities trades between counterparty and a brokerage firm, processing plurality of trades between said counterparty and said firm, identifying trades processed in step that have similar characteristics as related trades, combining said related trades into at least one aggregate trade, and settling each of said at least one aggregate trade as a single trade with said counterparty (col.5, line 35 to col.6, line 32 and col.9, line 15 to col.10, line 38); establishing least one firm account corresponding least one counterparty account of counterparty and performing step using said firm account (col.5, line 35 to col.6, line 32 and col.9, line 15 to col.10, line 38—user account); establishing wash account for receiving aggregate trades and unaggregated trades from said least one firm account and performing step using said wash account (col.5, line 35 to col.6, line 32 and col.9, line 15 to col.10, line 38—account used by brokerage for aggregated and unaggregated orders for trading); settling trades having characteristics different from said related trades as individual trades with said counterparty (col.5, line 35 to col.6, line 32 and col.9, line 15 to col.10, line 38—some order will not be aggregated); characteristics include trades wherein said similar same commodities securities, with the same buy or sell type (col.5, line 35 to col.6, line 32 and col.9, line 15 to col.10, line 38); and calculating the quantity and proceeds of said aggregate trade from sum the quantities and proceeds said related trades, wherein the price of said aggregate trade is computed as the average price of said related trades (col.5, line 35 to col.6, line 32 and col.9, line 15 to col.10, line 38).
